on receipt of letter No 8566 dated 2nd april 1902 from the Electors

Mr. Y. Aswaththa Narayana Rao passed his B. E. Examination in December 1895. He was under practical training from the 1st January 1896 to 31st Decr 1896
He was employed in the Mysore D of W from the 18th December 1897 and has now been conferred as Asst Assistant Engineer with effect from that date.

The question is that the period of one year spent by Mr. Aswaththa Narayana Rao in undergoing practical training should be considered as service qualifying for Pension - If this be done, the date of Mr Aswaththa Narayana Rao's pensionable service will begin from the 18th December 1896.
i.e. 13 days prior to his leaving the Consulting Architects Durban, Madras, which he joined for undergoing practical training

Submitted for orders.

The general order does not require that the service should begin immediately after the close of the period of training I think the concession may be sanctioned

Dear Mr Bhabha,

Will you kindly oblige me with answers to the following queries regarding Mr J Aswathanarayana Rao, Asstt Engineer, Kadur Division

1 Was he not in the service of the Madras PWD, either temporary or permanent?

2 Did he enter the Mysore Service direct from the College?

3 Has the concession — reckoning the period of one year spent in practical training in the College of Engineering Madras towards pensionable service on getting a permanent footing in the State — been shown to any others

The Chief Engineers do letter of the 27th Instant is submitted —

It shows that Aswathanarayana Rao was employed as a temporary overseer for two months in the Godavari Dt before

He joined the Mysore Service
He joined the Mysore service on the 18th December 1897

He was undergoing practical training from the 1st January 1896 to 31st December 1896.

Mr Aswathanarayana Rao's case was the first instance in which the concession — reckoning the period of one year spent in practical training in the College of Engineering, Madras, towards pensionable service, was first asked for and sanctioned

The condition laid down in ~~first~~
